MOREIRA CHONGUICA NOMINATED FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE AFRIMA AWARD

23 August 2017 - Morestar Entertainment is proud to announce that Mozambican saxophonist, Moreira Chonguica has been nominated for an All African Music Award (AFRIMA) for the second consecutive year for the album M & M with Cameroonian saxophonist and vibraphonist, Manu Dibango in the category BEST ARTISTE IN AFRICAN JAZZ. The award ceremony will take place in Lagos, Nigeria on November 12, 2017.

"I am humbled to have been nominated again in this category and grateful to Manu Dibango for sharing his wisdom and musicianship with me on this album." says Moreira

M & M: Moreira Chonguica and Manu Dibango was launched on 31 March 2017 at the Cape Town International Jazz Festival.

All Africa Music Awards, AFRIMA, is designed to promote the distinct rich African music worldwide, engaging millions of fans by propelling African music to glorious pinnacles beyond the borders of Africa.

4,816 entries from African music professionals and music artistes were received at the close of a two-month entry submission window on July 17 this year. The nominations process has been described as rigorous and thorough, as the Jury of 13 resolve to be fair and transparent in line with the AFRIMA values of FACEIT (fairness, authenticity, creativity, excellence, integrity, transparency).

There are 34 categories. Public voting for the nominees has opened on www.afrima.org.
