M & M SHOW AT CAPE TOWN INTERNATIONAL JAZZ FESTIVAL TO BE
STREAMED LIVE

In association with ESPAfrika, GFNTV and Content Connect Africa, we are delighted to announce that the M & M show with Moreira Chonguica and Manu Dibango with The Moreira Project band is to be streamed live via GFNTV on Friday 31 March 2017 at 19h00 (GMT + 2).

GFNTV is a US media company based in St Louis, Missouri. It is an online platform that offers premium urban video, professionally produced content, live events and hosts a blog network that serves as a source for bi-directional news, public affairs, commentary and lifestyle driven entertainment.

The concert is to be streamed to the US, UK, Japan and West Africa with an anticipated audience of 100 000 viewers. Other artists streamed live by GFNTV include Snoop Dogg, Mary J Blige and Eminem.

Mozambican born Moreira Chonguica and Cameroonian born Manu Dibango are performing this collaboration show together for the first time at the 18th Cape Town International Jazz Festival.

The Moreira Project consists of Tlale Makhene on percussion, Kevin Gibson on drums, Angelo Syster on guitar, Helder Gonzaga on bass, Ronan Skillen on tablas and percussion and Mark Fransman on keys with vocalists, Jaco Maria and Tracy Butler.

Moreira Chonguica performs on alto saxophone and Manu Dibango on tenor saxophone and vibraphone.

Their new album M & M: Moreira Chonguica and Manu Dibango is to be released on Friday 31 March 2017 at the concert.

Access to the concert is by payment of a subscription of $20.00 on the GFNTV website. www.gfntv.com/live

“To stay relevant, I believe that jazz must move with the times and to be a part of this digital initiative at this iconic African festival is very exciting for us. We are grateful to all the parties involved for this opportunity” says Moreira.
