

PRESS RELEASE

MOREIRA CHONGUICA TO PERFORM AT TWO PRESTIGIOUS EVENTS IN THE U.S

11 September 2017 - Award-winning saxophonist and entrepreneur, Moreira Chonguica is excited to be returning to the U.S this month to perform at two high profile events.

Moreira has been invited to perform on Tuesday 19 September 2017, at the Africa America Institute's Annual Awards Gala to be held at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel. Held during the United Nations General Assembly, the Annual Awards is one of the most anticipated 'Africa focused events' in New York City. The Awards Gala brings together distinguished guests and prominent figures who are working towards advancing economic and development progress in Africa.

Later in the week, Moreira has also been invited to visit Howard University in Washington, a private university recognised globally for its research activities and producing the most black doctorate recipients of any non-profit university in the U.S. He will also perform at the Congressional Black Caucus Annual Legislative Conference held at the Washington Conference Centre. This annual event is a leading policy conference on issues, which impact African Americans and the global black community. His Excellency, President Filipe Nuysi addressed this esteemed gathering in 2016.

"I am deeply honoured to have been asked to perform at these prestigious events and am grateful to be able to share my music with such respected audiences." says Moreira.
