

MOREIRA CHONGUIÇA

Renowned Mozambican jazz artist Moreira Chonguiça is celebrated globally for his innovative compositions and performances. Recently honoured as a Knight of the Order of Arts and Letters by the French Government, his eight award-winning albums showcase his East African roots merged with international influences. His latest release, SOUNDS OF PEACE melds traditional Mozambican music with jazz, earning accolades at prestigious awards ceremonies. Influenced by jazz legends like Miles Davis, Fela Kuti, Hugh Masekela and Manu Dibango, Moreira's dynamic saxophone skills and passionate stage presence captivate audiences worldwide. Beyond music, he dedicates himself to promoting Mozambican culture through initiatives like the Morejazz Series jazz festival, the Morejazz Big Band, and the Moreira Chonguiça Foundation enriching and promoting the country's cultural scene especially in areas like Cabo Delgado with youth affected by terrorism.
